

District Developed Special Education Delivery Plan

July 2024

A system for delivery of instructional services including a full continuum of services and placements to address the needs of eligible individuals ages 3-21 years of age.

All students will learn well, become lifelong learners, and contribute positively to society.

2. How will the services be organized and provided to eligible individuals? Purpose: The purpose of this question is to describe how the district will provide special education instructional services. Districts must include the full continuum of services and placements for eligible individuals from age 3 to 21, including preschool. When describing services for preschool children, the district must adhere to federal data reporting definitions of settings for preschool.	Centerville Community School District Continuum of Services: The district will provide access to the continuum of services for all eligible individuals as defined below based on their IEP. The continuum includes services for eligible individuals ages 3-21. Services may be provided within the district, or through contractual agreements with other districts and/or agencies. Students may receive different services at multiple points along a continuum based on the IEP. <table border="1" data-bbox="577 386 1810 592"> <thead> <tr> <th data-bbox="577 386 808 451">Least Intensive</th> <th data-bbox="808 386 1081 451"></th> <th data-bbox="1081 386 1417 451"></th> <th data-bbox="1417 386 1810 451">Most Intensive</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td data-bbox="577 479 808 560">General Education with Consultation</td> <td data-bbox="808 479 1081 560">General Education with Collaboration</td> <td data-bbox="1081 479 1417 592">General Education with Direct Instruction in a Special Ed Setting</td> <td data-bbox="1417 479 1810 560">Special Ed Setting with Direct Instruction</td> </tr> </tbody> </table> Students may receive IEP directed services at multiple points along the continuum. General Education with consultation/accommodations and/or modifications: The student is served in the general education setting with consultation and support from the special education teacher(s) or direct services providers. Example: The classroom teacher is responsible for teaching, testing, grading, and discipline in the general education setting. measures.

- Collaboratively plans with the special education teacher and provides specially designed instruction (SDI), accommodations, and modifications needed to enable access
 - Consults regularly and frequently with the special education teacher
 - Engages in ongoing communication and professional learning with special educators to assist with understanding of learning progressions within the Iowa Core.
 - Responsible for assignments and grades for general education curricular standards
- Monitors the learner's progress on IEP goals
 - Understands high-quality instructional and differentiation practices
 - Coordinates and shares available special education resources
 - Engages in regular and frequent consultation with general educators to oversee the general educator's provision of accommodations, modifications, SDI data collection, and data analysis
 - Has oversight and monitoring of the fidelity of SDI, accommodations, modifications, progress monitoring, BIP (Behavior Intervention Plan), and educational decision-making

General Education with Collaboration: Co-teaching services are defined as the provision of specially designed instruction and academic instruction provided to a group of students with disabilities and nondisabled students. These services are provided by the special education teacher and general education teacher in partnership to meet the content and skills needs of students in the general education classroom or regular early childhood program. These services take shape in a variety of manners.

Example: Teachers co-plan, divide the class, and provide the instruction to smaller groups, or teachers co-plan and then co-instruct different components of the content. The special education teacher/service provider is responsible for monitoring the student's progress on IEP goals.

Special Education Setting with Direct Instruction:

The student receives his/her primary core instruction separate from non-disabled peers as a program modification, all services will be provided in special education or a separate educational setting (including, but not limited to, self-contained special education classroom, virtual learning platforms, special schools, and home-bound instruction). In this model, reverse consultation will be provided by the general education teacher to ensure the special education service provider is equipped to meet the Iowa Core standards.

Example: A special education teacher provides individualized services according to the student's IEP.

Regular Early Childhood Program with Teacher Holding Dual Endorsements: The student is served in the regular early childhood classroom with a teacher who holds a valid practitioner's license issued by the Board of Educational Examiners that includes pre-kindergarten and early childhood special education. The teacher is responsible for direct instruction, preparation of materials, adaptations, and accommodations as specified in the IEP. The teacher with dual endorsement is responsible for implementing and monitoring the child's progress according to the IEP.

Example: The classroom teacher and the special education teacher may be the same individual and is responsible for teaching, testing, grading, and discipline in the general education setting. In the role of special education teacher/service provider, they are responsible for designing and adapting assignments and for monitoring the student's progress on IEP goals as well as adjusting the level of special education services according to the individual student's needs.

3. How will the caseloads of special education teachers be determined and regularly monitored?
Purpose:
 This requirement exists to ensure that teacher caseloads do not become unmanageable and compromise the provisions of services prescribed in the IEPs.

Caseloads will be tentatively set each spring for the following school year. Caseloads may be modified based on summer registration and actual fall enrollments. Caseloads will be reviewed 3 times during the school year. A scheduled review of teacher caseloads will be conducted by the building principals and special education director as follows:

- Within the first 20 school days of each academic year
- Within the first 20 days of the second semester of each academic year.
- By May 20th to plan for the following academic year.

A teacher may request a caseload review at any time during the school year. In determining teacher caseloads, the Centerville Community School District will use the Special Education Level specifically noted in the student's IEP and as determined by AEA staff.

	A teacher may be assigned a caseload of no more than 25 points or equivalent points based on FTE (Full-time equivalent) status. This caseload limit may be exceeded by no more than 10% for no more than 9 weeks if doing so does not prevent the affected teacher’s ability to provide the services and support specified in his or her student’s IEPs. The Centerville Community School District’s regular early childhood program and early childhood special education programs must meet the criteria of the Preschool Program Standard (QPPS) being implemented regarding maximum class and teacher-child ratio.
Question	Answer
4. What procedures will a special education teacher use to resolve caseload concerns? Purpose: The purpose of this requirement is to ensure that special education teachers have a way to request a review of situations that have not been addressed by the caseload review process.	Upon review, if there appears to be an overload, the teacher may request and the principal will arrange a Caseload Assistance Team (CAT) meeting. The CAT will comprise of a general education teacher, a special education teacher from the building, the building administrator, the Director of Special Education, and an AEA representative. The CAT will make recommendations as to whether there is a need for adjustments to a teacher’s schedule or roster. At any other time, a teacher may request a caseload review by submitting, in writing, the request to the building principal. The building principal must convene the CAT within 5 working days. A plan of resolution and a written decision must be made available to the teacher within 7 working days after the CAT meeting. If a district is exceeding the limits specified in this plan, the district may ask the AEA Special Education Director or his/her designee to grant an adjusted caseload status. An AEA may grant an adjusted caseload status for “good cause shown.” 41.408 (2) g. A showing of good cause is highly dependent on the facts and circumstances surrounding the request and a determination of “good cause” is within the sound discretion of the AEA Special Education Director. As a general rule, “good cause” will not be satisfied by a district’s unsupported request for an adjustment to its caseload, and will typically require a demonstration that the district considered other alternatives before seeking an adjustment. As with all special education questions, the primary concern should be the district’s ability to provide FAPE (Free Appropriate Public Education) in the LRE (Least Restrictive Environment) to the eligible individuals it serves

Question	Answer
5. How will the delivery system for eligible individuals meet the targets identified in the state's performance plan and the LEA determination as assigned by the state? What process will be used to evaluate the effectiveness of the delivery system for eligible individuals? Purpose: Dependent upon any needs indicated by data or determination assigned by the State, the district will examine the District Developed Plan to determine if a revision to the plan is warranted in order to effect the desired change.	The district will examine their State's Performance Plan (SSP) and Annual Progress Report (APR) data to determine priorities and develop an action plan. If the district meets SPP/APR requirements, the delivery system will be considered effective. If the district does not meet the requirements, the district will work in collaboration with the state and AEA.
